Experience

As a common-law practicer I defended many cases even up to the High Court of which four of these were published and became part of our common law.

My main experience can be found in the financial/economical field in representing through the years various international operating companies as their corporate lawyer.

Over the last 10 years I represented companies from the USA, England, Spain, Germany, Switserland, Hungary, the Dutch Antilles, India and Peru for which I have been working as an advisor for contracting, trade negotiations and coordinating/supervising local attorneys. In that field I also founded and restructured companies in various parts of the world.

Over the last few years I advised in contracts for steel ( China ), cement and a car factory. My law-firm acted as a corporate lawyer for a worldwide operating dutch/french joint-venture in the field of electronic devices, which also included contacts on gouvernement level
